Shengkai Innovations, Inc – VALV

Shengkai Innovations is engaged in the design, manufacture and sale of ceramic valves, high-tech ceramic materials and the provision of technical consultation and related services. The Company was founded in 1994 and is headquartered in Tianjin, the People's Republic of China.

The company is one of the few ceramic valve manufacturers in the world with research and development, engineering, and production capacity for structural ceramics and is the only valve manufacturer in China that is able to produce large-sized ceramic valves with calibers of 6 inches or more. In June, Shengkai Innovations completed construction on a new manufacturing facility that is supposed to triple its total output. On the 26th August, VALV announced that the company has won a contract to supply Hong Kong's power generation facilities. It has already filled 3 commercial orders under the new contract. In the financial year 2009, the company reported revenue of USD 39.20 million and net income of USD 13.50 million. This is almost a 21 percent growth in revenue and a 35 percent increase in profit. The current price is USD 7.25. Its 52-week price range is between USD 7.25 and USD 10.56.
